

Forest Machinery Taster Event – January/February 2023

APPLICATION FORM

The Forest Machinery Taster event is an opportunity to learn more about the role of a machinery operator within the forestry sector. Completion of the course should make you an attractive employee for any of the timber harvesters operating across Scotland and the wider UK. The application process is competitive, with places awarded based on:

- Machinery experience – those with some form of machinery operation experience will be given priority
- Driving licence – you must have a current UK driving licence
- First come basis – in the event of a tie of the above those who contacted soonest will be give first choice.

A waiting list will be created for those who did not get a place initially.
